PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Product Designer, The Ambassador Platform (Acquired by IDP Education, 2023) May 2019 - Apr 2022

B2B EdTech SaaS platform serving 100+ universities, colleges and schools · Sole product designer

- Improved prospective student conversion by ~30% by leading a user-centered redesign of the sign-up flow and widget layout. Applied data analysis, user research, and A/B testing to identify pain points, simplify steps, and clarify CTAs in collaboration with engineering.
- Built the company's design system and component library from scratch - standardizing color contrast, typography, and spacing to improve visual accessibility, reduce engineering ambiguity at handoff, and establish consistent brand identity across all platforms.
- Cut sales cycle by 25% (40 → 30 days) by redesigning the customer onboarding experience - identifying and removing key usability barriers through research and iteration.
- Used Mixpanel and Google Analytics to track funnel performance and user behavior - translating data into design decisions on conversion, retention, and onboarding flows.

Career Break, Maternity leave and relocation to Canada May 2022 - Present

- Completed AI Product Design course (idea validation through launch). Active in product design and AI tools workshops. Independently designing and building an app that helps users find rental options based on school ratings in the GTA.
